Buechele - Chief Executive Officer (in the yellow shirt) are shown here at the golf course dedication.

Our Commitment to the Environment & to You

We don't cook with trans fat oils.

We do our best to always use fresh ingredients when we prepare our meals.

We buy local whenever possible.

We do not use Styrofoam products.

And we recycle.

Celebrating 40 Years of Community, Nature & Family

In 1971, the first 275 acres of Innsbrook was purchased from Wilbur Fienup, inventor of the Pillsbury dough can and the machinery that made them. Above, left-right: Ed Boyce, Mr. Fienup and Warren Wobbe Sr.

This photo, circa 1970s, shows the original Innsbrook cowboys down at the stables.

Innsbrook was born as an A-frame community in 1971 and has grown to include residential homes, villas and condominiums. Shown above, Wayne Limbert in front of one of our original A's.
