Construction Updates

Aspen Center:

The remodel of the Aspen Center is complete. Final touches were made in the Executive Board Room, including the use of century-old barn wood on one of the walls and new granite countertops, flooring, and lighting. Ext. 0.

The Clubhouse Bar and Grille:

The ambiance of the re-invented Clubhouse will be the perfect blend of rustic, refined and relaxed. The plans for that area include:

- An expanded kitchen to help contribute to a consistent and quality dining experience;
- Expansion of the bar area;
- Fireplace in the bar area;
- Men's and women's restrooms on the main floor;
- New flooring, tables, barstools and chairs.

The design concept board showing the material and decor that will inspire the final look of the Clubhouse can be found just inside the entrance to the Aspen Center. The Clubhouse Bar and Grille is slated to reopen on May 1. You can get a sneak peek if you visit the Pro Shop during construction. See Pro Shop construction update on page 4. Ext. 203. Photo: Looking out from the old Pro Shop through the Clubhouse bar area.

New Amenity Complex:

Understandably, probably the most talked about topic of discussion of 2014 was centered around Innsbrook's pool, or lack thereof. Several delays have unfortunately pushed back the opening date of Memorial Day 2015 that we were initially aiming for. Rest assured that we are just as excited about getting the new facility open as you are, and we're diligently working on moving the project forward.

To keep you informed about the progress on the pool facility, we will post monthly updates, at minimum, with an estimated date for the pool opening and other areas of the amenity complex. You can find the most up-to-date information about the project on our website at www.innsbrook-resort.com/property-owners/amenity-complex. If you have questions, concerns or suggestions you'd like to share about any of these projects, please feel free to contact us at information@innsbrook-resort.com.

Don't Leave Fires Unattended

There's nothing like a crackling campfire to keep you warm on a brisk winter's eve. But it's important to remember a few fire safety tips. When you're coming inside for the day or leaving the area, completely turn over all logs to check for smoldering and then thoroughly soak the entire area with water. If you see a fire left unattended, please report the exact location to security immediately. Ext. 400.

NATURE NOTE

Where Do All the Insects Go?

On the coldest days of winter, you can't help but miss the butterflies and ladybugs. Just where do these insects spend the winter? Except for a few that migrate, all of the insects you remember from the warm months are still around in the winter, even in your neighborhood.

Some insects, such as honeybees, overwinter as adults. With others, only the pregnant females survive, spending the winter by hibernating under leaves, in tree bark, or beneath shingles. Insects also overwinter as eggs, or as immature young. In fact, it's easy to see their feeding places and shelters in the winter season if you look at fallen twigs, trees, galls and egg sacs under the bark of trees.

If you see a willow or poplar tree, look for a tiny bit of curled-up leaf attached to a twig – inside may be a future viceroy butterfly. A row of small holes on a twig houses cricket eggs.

Some insect adults can be found buried underground and in mud or leaf litter. But on a warm winter day, look around trees and on top of the snow for one of the few active winter insects, the snow flea.

Next time you're outdoors enjoying winter, keep your eyes open for the subtle reminders that the insects there are waiting for the warm days to come.

INNSBROOK CLUBS

Winter Hike on Valentine's Day

Join our informal Innsbrook Living in Harmony with Nature group for a mid-winter hike and photo safari on one of Innsbrook's many nature trails at 2 p.m. on Valentine's Day, Saturday, February 14. Trail selection and directions to be finalized the day before given the expected weather, ground, and road conditions for traveling at your own responsibility. Valentine prizes to be awarded for the best looking (probably the coldest) and worst looking (likely the warmest) winter outdoor apparel and footwear! Call Kath Kremer at 636-745-0121 or email Rich McFall at rwmcfall@earthlink.net to be on the group's announcement list.

Non-Denominational Bible Study

Non-denominational Bible study on Monday, February 16 and Monday, February 23 will be held at 7 p.m. at the Innsbrook home of Sue Abernathy at 465 Foxfire Crossing Drive.

Green Hats

No luncheon scheduled for February but we are going to gather and make new name tags. Everyone decorates their own so bring with you any ribbons, sequins, beads, glue – whatever you wish. Meet at Barb Powell's house, 529 Amber Glen Drive, on Tuesday, February 17 at 11 a.m. Bring a lunch with you and we will spend time having fun and getting creative. Name tags will be provided.

Please note that these are property owner-run and organized clubs and events. If you have club news you'd like to share, call ext. 180 or email information@innsbrook-resort.com.

INNSBROOK INSTITUTE NEWS

Mark your calendars for the 15th Anniversary Season of the Innsbrook Institute Summer Music Academy and Festival!
June 5 - 13, 2015

There are numerous ways you may participate.

1. Donate your condo, chalet or home for student or artist housing, or for student practice space.
2. Volunteer in the Institute office, at the Box Office, as an usher, or provide snacks for students.

Housing sponsors and volunteers receive complimentary concert tickets!

3. Become a sponsor. Sponsor benefits include early seating selection and fundraiser selection.

For information on how you can be involved, contact the Institute office at 636-928-3366, ext. 218, or at info@innsbrookinstitute.org.

GOLF NEWS

New Club Car Golf Carts have Arrived!

Sixty new Club Car golf carts have arrived to the Innsbrook Golf Course. A definite improvement over the previous carts, these carts feature a much quieter engine, which is also approximately 35 percent more fuel efficient than the old carts' engines. Each cart also has a club and golf ball cleaner on it. Ext. 203.

2015 Annual Golf Passes – It's Not Too Late!

2015 is here, which means you should get your Annual Golf Pass soon to get the most bang for your buck! We have three options to choose from this year: Birdie Pass; Season Pass; and Weekday Season Pass. There are a limited number of passes available in each category. Go to www.innsbrook-resort.com/golf/passes for more information. Purchase your Annual or Birdie Pass at the Pro Shop or by calling ext. 203.

Pro Shop Construction Update

As renovations and improvements continue in the Clubhouse, the Pro Shop has been temporarily relocated to the dining area of the restaurant (across the hall from its previous location). This spring, the Pro Shop will move to a new permanent location in the lower level of the Clubhouse. There will be a new outdoor entrance for golfers and Pro Shop customers to ease traffic flow in the area and allow the main floor of the Clubhouse to be completely dedicated to the new restaurant. By making the move to a new Pro Shop, we will be able to expand the selection of Innsbrook-logged merchandise offered there. In 2015 we will also continue to make improvements to the golf course in an effort to provide the highest quality experience to golfers of all levels and abilities. Throughout all of these renovations, the golf course will remain open for business, weather permitting. Ext. 203.

Pardon our mess! The temporary Pro Shop is set up in the dining area of the Clubhouse restaurant.
