If the eggs or chicks are warmer than 107 degrees Fahrenheit, they will not survive. Ventilation holes should be drilled on the sides of the boxes near the top. Send your bluebird comments and questions to saritsema@gmail.com.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY UPDATE

Members from the Innsbrook Historical Society are dedicating many hours rebuilding the Upper Charrette Schoolhouse, originally located just inside the west gate. With the help of Missouri Crane and a great work crew, rafters have now been added to the Schoolhouse. Work will continue throughout the next few months. Photo by Gary Barton. Please note that these are property owner-run clubs and events. If you have club news you'd like to submit for consideration, send an email to news@innsbrook-resort.com or call ext. 9180. Submissions may be edited for space considerations. Limit one article per club, per edition unless space allows.

BE BEAR AWARE

You may have seen reports recently of a black bear sighting just south of Wright City. If you'd like to check out the Missouri Department of Conservation's tips on being "bear aware" visit bit.ly/ibkbearaware and learn how to keep yourself, your pets and our native bears in harmony with each other.

LOOKOUT FOR LITTER

Even in a beautiful, nature-loving community like ours, litter sometimes appears along the road. Please be conscious of loose trash in your vehicle as you drive through the community. If you are going for a walk or hike, please consider taking a plastic bag along to help pick up these items. Your neighbors and our Innsbrook wildlife all thank you!

WE'RE STICKLERS FOR STICKERS

All property owner recreational vehicles and boats are required to have stickers. Innsbrook recreational stickers are now available for boats and unlicensed, motorized vehicles (golf carts, Gators, Mules, etc). These stickers do not expire and your existing boat sticker is still valid. Each sticker is $5. Please note: Stickers should be placed in the lower left corner of the driver's side of the windshield. Questions? Ext. 9180.

SMOKE-FREE ENVIRONMENT

As a reminder, all community facilities at Innsbrook are smoke-free. Please be considerate of others when attending concerts and other events - even those outdoors. Children and nonsmokers exposed to tobacco smoke may sometimes experience headaches, nausea and breathing difficulties. Please be mindful of others and keep our environment smoke-free.

nature note

CAUTIONARY TAIL

Deer are a treasured (and sometimes frequent) sight for many at Innsbrook and across the Midwest. You may have noticed fawns in the area. Spring is generally the time of year when deer give birth; fawns arrive between April through July. In the summer, white-tailed deer are reddish brown to tan and in the winter their colors change and fawns lose their spots.

"Doe at Dusk" by Bob Wombacher

Deer have an average lifespan of 15 years and are often essential to the environment in that their food source is often buds and branches, helping to reduce overgrowth in the plants.

Please be cautious and watch for deer on the roads throughout the year as some may walk in front of cars and can be difficult to see prior to being right in front of a vehicle.

Keep yourself and our peaceful neighbors safe!
