THANK YOU FROM GOD CARES

We want to extend our sincere thanks to all who participated in our 10th Annual God Cares Golf Tournament. We had 136 golfers, 90 hole sponsors and 8 tournament sponsors - our largest turnout yet! All of us at God Cares and the Warrior Transition Newtwork Foundation, as well as the veterans you will help, can't thank you enough for your generosity and support.

INNSBROOK CHRISTMAS COMMUNITY CHOIR

The Christmas Community Choir at Innsbrook will begin a new season under a new director, Karen Roche. Rehearsals will be on Wednesdays from 9-11 a.m. at Harmonie Church in Innsbrook starting October 16. Performances will be Dec. 7 at Home Town Christmas in Warrenton and Dec. 8 at Harmonie. All who love to sing are invited. Our objective is to welcome in the Holy season with joy. A $10.00 fee is asked to help pay for music. Please call Sharon Dieckmann at 636.297.5097, or email for information.

WEEKLY HARMONIE CHURCH SERVICES

EXCITING HALLOWEEN DISPLAY IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD!

We're back! Visit our exciting Halloween display at 502 Woodlake Drive. Some of your old favorites and a lot new! October 15 – November 2. Dusk until 10 p.m., later on weekends.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITY AT THE LIBRARY

Become a Friend of the Scenic Regional Library in Wright City! Come to the next organizational meeting on November 5 at 5:30 p.m. at the Wright City library located at 60 Wildcat Drive. Call the library at 636.384.1136 or Alice and Bob at 636.745.2319 for more information.

CARDIO FITNESS CLASS UNDERWAY

Wednesdays | 11:20 a.m. - 12:05 p.m. | COM

Join us for Silver Sneakers CardioFit! This safe and heart-healthy aerobics class energizes your active lifestyle using low-impact and joint-friendly movements that focus specifically on improving core strength and cardio endurance. This is a higher-intensity class than Classic and Circuit. All exercises will be done standing. Fitness level: intermediate to advanced; although participants will not sit or lay on the floor for any exercises, it is an aerobics (not weight) class, and the exercises will increase your heart rate during the class. Call ext. 9180 or email information@innsbrook-resort.com for questions.

MEMORIAL SHIRTS FOR ROCK-BOTTOM PRICES: $5, ALL SIZES!

The remaining Memorial Day t-shirts are now on sale for $5.00 each in the Aspen Boutique. Stop in and purchase some for yourself, family, and friends! Youth sizes are still available as well.

EVENT SURVEY PRIZE PACK WINNERS!

Congrats to the winners of the Innsbrook prize pack for filling out the 2019 Events Survey: Dan & Judy Kamm, Condo 148!

Nature note

THE OSAGE APPLE

The Osage apple, sometimes called the hedge apple, horse apple, monkey ball, or the Osage orange, is a fruit that, while not poisonous, is also not especially edible, for humans or for animals. The latex juice it secretes is sticky and acidic, and can irritate skin. The woody meat inside the Osage apple resembles (in texture but not taste) a cross between a pineapple and a jackfruit, and reportedly tastes like the bitter rind of a melon or cucumber. The fruit is difficult to open, and does not germinate easily, although the seeds do sprout well in elephant dung, suggesting to some researchers that now-extinct animals like mastadons and mammoths may have played a role in the evolution of this fruit.

"The Osage Apple."

Osage trees in the U.S. were grown not for their fruit, but for their wood, with Native Americans and early settlers valuing the strong, flexible, durable wood for their bows. Meriwether Lewis found the Osage tree and its fruit so novel that he sent some cuttings and samples back to President Thomas Jefferson from his expedition in 1804. Osage apples have been used as household decor since the mid-1800s with its pretty, bright green color and interesting bumpy texture making for a more appealing table centerpiece than a snack! Have you seen the Osage apple growing around Innsbrook?

THANK YOU, PICKLEBALL TOURNAMENT VOLUNTEERS!

Immense thanks to Lola, Suzanne, Craig, Don Sessions, Deb and Brad Ford, Cindy Foster, Jim Teeple, Nancy and Carol and John Simon for helping out last weekend with setup, check-in, filling coolers/food, carting folks to the bathroom, tear down and much more. Special kudos to Dawn Hayworth and Jim Hebeisen for running the raffle so well both days and bringing in over $2,000! Your help was an integral part to make our tournament the success it was! A HUGE thank you to John Giarrante and Ted and Mike Chapin for everything before and during the tournament! Can't forget Arnie Chapin, who worked like a dog the entire weekend! Congrats to all who played and medaled. Innsbrook represented very well!

TICKETS ON SALE NOW! FALL GALA - CARIBBEAN NIGHTS

Friday, November 8 | 6 p.m. | AC

Join us for the 2019 Institute Fall Gala - "Caribbean Nights!" This amazing fundraiser raises awareness and money for the region's largest summer music festival and academy. We will celebrate our 20th year in 2020! Enjoy live music, fine dining, drinks, a dessert bar and more. To purchase tickets please visit our website, www.innsbrookinstitute.org.

SEEKING AUCTION ITEMS FOR THE FALL GALA

The Gala is right around the corner and we are still in need of items for the auction and liquor for the Booze Raffle. Hard liquor, beer, wine, ciders - we will take it. Art, baskets, wreaths, gift certificates, garden décor - we are looking for everything.

GALA VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Friday, November 8 | 5 p.m. | AC

We are looking for volunteers for the 2019 Fall Gala to be held Nov. 8 at the Aspen Center from 6-10 p.m. Volunteers are needed to set-up, starting at 5 p.m., and throughout the event. You can work the entire evening or part of the evening. If you are new to Innsbrook and looking to meet some neighbors, this is a great event!

Give Heidi a call with questions at the Institute office at (636)928.3366 ext. 9218 or email at heidi@innsbrookinstitute.org.
