BARN RAISING

Exciting news from the IHS! The picture above shows the results of Howell and Sons clearing and leveling the site for our reconstructed barn. While we're a long way from our first "barn dance," this is a monumental step in the process. We are hopeful of getting concrete foundation work started soon, and after that, the hard work of rebuilding our donated barn will begin in earnest. Stay tuned as we will very likely be looking for volunteers to assist in the barn "raising!" We will continue to keep you posted of our rebuilding plans here in the Cabin Chronicles.

CEMETERY TOUR

Who would have thought that there would be six cemeteries in the boundaries of Innsbrook. Perhaps because back in previous centuries, (especially in the 1800's), graves were often family plots. Join us on Saturday, October 28, for our first Innsbrook Historical Society sponsored cemetery tour, called "Stories Behind the Stones." Who knows, you may even see a familiar family name at one of the sites.

The tour is self guided. All you need to do is stop by Harmonie Church at 24924 S. Stracks Church Rd. anytime between 1 and 4 p.m. You'll receive a map and directions to all of the six sites. An IHS docent will be at each cemetery to give a brief history of the site or the interred. You may visit one, or ALL of the six sites. After finishing the tour, stop at the IHS Log Cabin site for a bonfire and light snacks.

We will be collecting a free-will donation to benefit the Innsbrook Historical Society Barn Fund. (Cash or checks only)

Becoming a member of the IHS is easy. Go to: innsbrookhistoricalsociety.org and download the membership form. If you have questions about membership in the IHS, don't hesitate to call Dave at 314-704-7001.

NATURE NOTES

The Sounds of Fall

Fall is a sensory delight. The landscape is awash with the colors of changing leaves. Sunsets are coppery. Fall smells are evocative: cider, smoke from burning leaves, and the singed pumpkin of a jack-o-lantern plug.

The sounds of fall are distinct too. Crickets call. As E.B. White wrote in "Charlotte's Web": "They sang the song of summer's ending, a sad monotonous song."

Crisp, dead leaves cover the ground and swish and crunch underfoot. Squirrels chatter and raise a leafy rattle as they scurry for acorns to bury and find again as fall fades into winter.

Deer look for mates, and they move restlessly. Bucks vying for dominance fight, and their antlers clack and scrape. A lone deer suddenly surprised is likely to snort. Wild elk chuckle, bugle and sound off in the Ozark hills.

Migrating geese cut across autumn skies in wide V's, belting out calls of reassurance to one another. The chorus of honks fills the chilly air, first softly, then stridently, and then fades away. A new fleet takes up the calm then it passes too, and the relay continues, sometimes for hours.

How can you best enjoy the sounds of fall while gazing at its changing colors? For spectacular vistas, choose routes with views of forested bluffs, and along ridges with sweeping scenes of forested landscapes. Innsbrook offers spectacular views along bluffs, creeks, and lush valleys, with abundant wildlife sightings throughout the property.

On a smaller scale, hike one of the seven walking trails at Innsbrook and experience a colorful forest canopy on a clear, bluesky day. It's like having acres of shining stained glass above
