

Innsbrook Institute Dissolution Frequently Asked Questions

Why is Innsbrook Institute dissolving?

Despite our best efforts post pandemic, we do not have the resources (audiences, revenue or space) to allow us to successfully sustain our mission. Sadly, we offered free music festivals over the past year and attendance was minimal. This is not necessarily a unique issue to the Innsbrook Institute. Other music festivals focused on classical music have also seen a significant decline in attendance and contributions post pandemic.

Can we still order cookbooks? Yes! The Taste of Innsbrook cookbook will be a great tribute to the memories of the Institute and a special recognition of the artists of Innsbrook. We are confident about the product and know that you will be excited to build community with others that have been excited to contribute recipes to our book! The art is simply wonderful and the recipes look delicious! This will be a keepsake book you will want on your shelf for years to come.

Pre-order your copy(ies) of the Taste of Innsbrook Cookbook on the link below or drop off a check to the Commons drop box!

*Taste of Innsbrook Cookbook - Now \$25 Each! Tickets, Innsbrook | Eventbrite*

Where will the money for cookbook sales go? The money collected for the cookbooks will eventually be distributed to the successor tax-exempt organization selected by the Board of Directors. The organization must have a Mission Statement and purpose similar to that of the Innsbrook Institute (Arts & Education).

When will the cookbook be available for pickup? Our goal was to receive the cookbooks no later than November 1, 2022 and that date is still on target if not sooner. Please check the Explorer for pick-up dates as soon as the books are delivered. We will also have books at The Market Cafe and Creamery's boutique on select dates!

Is the Poker Run event on October 2 still happening? We have decided to cancel the Poker Run. Tickets purchased will be returned.

Where is David Halen now? David Halen is in St. Louis and will start the season back with St. Louis Symphony Orchestra and is excited to once again be building at Innsbrook.

What is the future of arts and education at Innsbrook?

For now, we take a short pause on this journey and we all look forward to a time in the not so distant future that we can gather again to hear the classics performed at Innsbrook!