WEEKLY BLUEBIRD REPORT
We have 75 active bluebird nests containing 148 eggs and 133 hungry chicks. Only 14 chicks fledged this week. If your nest box attracts wasps, rub the inside box top with a bar of Fels Naptha soap. Send bluebird reports to Shirley at saritsema@gmail.com.

RESPECT THE EAGLES
Please respect and protect Innsbrook’s eagles by following guidelines: Stay 600 feet from a visible nest; avoid cutting trees within 330 feet from the nest and when nests are naturally blown down, continue to protect the site for three breeding seasons. For more tips from the Missouri Department of Conservation, visit http://bit.ly/eagletips.

SWIM ACROSS AMERICA SEEKS VOLUNTEERS
Swim Across America will be back to Innsbrook on August 24, and we’re seeking volunteers for this great cause! Last year, Swim Across America St. Louis raised more than $218,000 for vital cancer research for Siteman Cancer Center. Innsbrook residents have made the event a great success, and we need your help to take it even higher this year. Experience this exciting, inspiring event! Sign up to participate at www.swimacrossamerica.org/slouis or volunteer by emailing dmwpals2012@gmail.com. Join us in “Making Waves Against Cancer!”
